Seattle's leading hospitality design firm is seeking a hotel designer who is passionate about their work and is looking to advance their career at a firm that is dedicated to design excellence and client service.

Degen & Degen is a design-oriented, boutique firm specializing in custom hotel and resort projects throughout the United States. We are a fully integrated architecture + interior design practice looking for professionals who are comfortable working in such a collaborative environment.

People are our most valuable resource. We are looking for candidates who naturally possess D&D DNA - personal values that define integrity and character. (See Team Page)

This position is full-time in-office; our teams prefer to collaborate in-person. We offer a flexible, family-friendly work environment with competitive compensation and an excellent benefits package

IDEAL CANDIDATE WILL POSSESS

- Minimum eight years actual full-time work experience as a practicing design professional in hotel interior or architectural design
- Professional degree in interior design or architecture
- Certification is preferred
- Superior leadership and organizational skills
- Ability to work comfortably with other design professionals in a collaborative, studio-like environment
- Proven experience in successfully managing multiple clients, projects and teams
- Ability to generate design concepts and fully execute them from inception to completion
- Advanced graphic skills and ability to communicate design intent through both digital and traditional graphic mediums
- Working knowledge of national hotel brand standards
- Solid knowledge of architectural technology and building codes
- Proficiency in Revit and Adobe Creative Suite is required. Experience with rendering software preferred.
- Able and willing to travel for project site visits across the country, generally 1-2-day trips
- Authorization to work in the United States

WORK LIFE AT DEGEN & DEGEN

- Friendly, upbeat group of professionals who are passionate about design
- Well-known firm in the hospitality industry with excellent reputation nationwide
- Family-friendly - respectful of employees' personal lives and interests
- Benefits - full payment of premiums for health, dental, vision and life insurance. Firm contribution to retirement plan. Bonuses, bus pass, weekly in-office vendor and professional development events, et al.
- Downtown Seattle open-plan office with spectacular water views of the Puget Sound
- Close proximity to all bus and light rail transit routes
